B. PLANNING & CONSTRUCTION

1. Cabinet on March 16, 1929 authorized construction of "a steel building and chimney" at rear of Hayes Hall for use of the Ceramics Art Department at an estimated cost of $1000. No other details have been found, but presumably the building was constructed by University employees or by the supplier on purchase order.

2. Cabinet on July 8, 1940 authorized a "kiln house addition" at a cost of $241.50 to be paid out of maintenance funds. Presumably the work was done by University employees, or by an outside supplier on purchase order.
